1. [] - GLC) On the basis of information provided by [] Personnel, I advised Scott Peek, Administrative Assistant to Senator George A. Smathers, that although it was quite early to make a prediction, I was contacting him because of his particular interest in the application of [] I told Peek our people did have an interest in [] as a possible candidate for our Junior Officer Training program but that many procedural steps would have to be taken before a final determination was made as to his eligibility. I emphasized that this included not only further review of his education and qualifications, but also a review of his medical history, a security investigation, psychological assessment, etc. I told Peek we would not be contacting [] for several more weeks but as he requested, we were keeping him advised as to the progress of his application. Peek said he appreciated this and probably would say nothing about it to [] other than to indicate that he knew we were still interested in him.

2. [] - GLC) Ben Mandel, Research Director for the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called and asked if we would provide him with the address of [] so that he might pass it on to someone who is interested in a press conference with him. The interested party is [] [] [] prints a publication known as [] [] Mandel said that [] has been described to him as an ardent anti-Communist but is unknown to Mandel personally. I told Mandel we would like to check further on [] before providing this information. This was perfectly acceptable to Mandel.
